SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Silver Wedding of Captain and Mrs. Wise on Board Franklin.

Father Ryan Memorial—Receptions—Reclining—Lunches—Dinners—Lake Drummond and Card Parties—A Strawberry Festival—Personal Mention.

The most notable social event of the week was the beautiful silver wedding reception given by Captain and Mrs. Wise on Friday evening on board the Franklin. The host and hostess received their friends in the reception room on the upper deck. Ferns and pink and white roses were the flowers lavishly adorned with flags. The band played all during the evening, and delightful refreshments were served.

Mrs. Wise wore a gown of satin edged with green crepe, with steel trimmings. Miss Wise wore white organdy, trimmed with lace over pink, and their guest, Miss Kendall, of Boston, had on white lace. Captain and Mrs. Wise were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

There were present Admiral and Mrs. Barker, Captain and Mrs. Watson and Miss Watson; Miss Schoonmaker, Pay Inspector Redfield, Pay Director and Mrs. Eldredge, Constructor and Mrs. Stahl, Mr. and Mrs. Milligan, Paymaster Milligan, Constructor and Mrs. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Paymaster Don, Lieutenant Baber, Lieutenant Eslick, Lieutenant Brunzell, Ensign McMill, Ensign Henderson, Lieutenant Commander Porter, Lieutenant Commander Carter, Lieutenant Edgar, Lieutenant Gilmer, Dr. and Mrs. Guthrie, Paymaster and Mrs. Biscoe, Dr. and Mrs. Cadet, Commander Garst, Dr. and Mrs. Parrish, Mrs. Edgerton, Mr. and Mrs. Cook, Miss Freeman, Mr. Crump, Mrs. Clinton Curtis, Mrs. Reynolds and Miss Reynolds, Mrs. Chaplain Wright, the Misses Reed, Nash, Percease, Allyn, Reeves, Potter, Perkins, Redney, Amen, Kitty Heath, Doyle, Berpell and Kendall, Messrs. Sams, Adams, Wilkenson, Lamb, Stephens, Berpell, Turner, James Johnston, Keating, Trofman, Reeves, H. G. Miller, W. Parrish, E. Parrish, Ridley and Porter.

A SILVER TEA.
On Thursday evening from 8 until 10 the members of the Corean Circle of the Second Presbyterian Church will give a Silver Tea at the residence of Mrs. Ernest Thacker, on York street. A musical and literary program will be presented and refreshments served. No admission will be charged, but there will be a voluntary silver offering. The members and friends of the circle are cordially invited.

EPWORTH LITERARY LEAGUE.
The Epworth Literary League of Epworth Church will meet to-morrow evening, when the subject of the meeting will be "John Knox." Two papers will be read, after which the social feature, a scrap basket contest, will be enjoyed.

FLOWERS FOR MEMORIAL DAY.
The ladies in charge of the flowers for Memorial Day will be at the store formerly occupied by Taylor & Loyal, on Granby street, early Tuesday morning, and all donations for the Confederate graves will be gladly received by them. There are 750 graves, and bouquets have to be made for each one. That none may be neglected an earnest appeal is made to all who have flowers to remember this day.

MISS DILLARD'S RECITAL.
Miss Florence Dillard, of Richmond, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Taylor and Messrs. Richards and Jenkins, of this city, will give a recital Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. John L. Roper, 169 Freemason street, for the benefit of the City Union of the King's Daughters. Miss Dillard is a violinist of rare artistic ability. She is a pupil of Hallé, of Berlin, and the great virtuoso Nany, of Brussels, Belgium, and has won the applause of the best critics in this country and abroad. Her winter series of recitals at the Jefferson were much enjoyed by the musical people of Richmond, and she was listened to with delight by the members of the Woman's Club and the Wednesday Club. Miss Taylor, Mr. Richards and Mr. Jenkins are so well known here that the mention of their names assures the success of the program.

FATHER RYAN MEMORIAL.
The ladies in charge of the Father Ryan memorial, which will be unveiled on Memorial Day, feel greatly encouraged and gratified at the result of their work. Generous donations have been received, and the chairman is more than pleased with the success of the undertaking.

The order of exercises for the unveiling of the memorial will be as follows:
1. Dirge, by band.
2. Introductory remarks, by J. J. Burroughs, Esq., followed by reading of poem, entitled, "A Voice From Norfolk," written for the occasion by the distinguished poet, Mr. Charles J. O'Malley, of Kentucky.
3. Unveiling of the memorial, by Father Ryan committee: Mrs. W. P. Barry, Mrs. W. H. Doyle, Mrs. F. A. Walke, Mrs. T. E. Garrett, Mrs. T. E. Yeatman, Mrs. R. B. Cooke, and Mrs. Washington Taylor.
4. Hymn, by the band.
5. Recitation, "The Conquered Banner," by Mr. William H. Venable.
6. "My Old Kentucky Home," by the band.
